Romantic Moonlight Trips

Departure is One Hour before dusk. (7:30pm in summer months and 6:30pm in fall months.) Fall in love and reconnect again with your partner. Imagine canoeing under the bright full moon with the river current gently pushing you along. Night time canoeing is a surreal experience. Explore the river with your spouse, paddling in and around some of the most scenic sections of the Hocking River. You are allowed to bring you own coolers (no Styrofoam coolers or glass bottles please) and stop for a picnic on one of the pristine river beaches. In order to celebrate your amazing relationship we provide a complimentary glass of wine to you and your partner. We also provide live entertainment at the conclusion of your trip, it all comes together for an amazing night. Trip Details - Moonlights Tours are scheduled to depart roughly an hour before dusk. The trip launches at our Crocketts Run launch and concludes at the canoe livery landing. Plan to be on the river about 1-2 hours. Prepare to paddle the first hour during the sunset and the second hour under the full moon. Plan to stick around after the trip for live music, wine and smores.
